COURT OF APPEAL, FIRST CIRCUIT

GWAINÉ LUNO, JONATHAN
PENLEY, JACOBI LANDRY,
MARCOS BROWN, BRAD LEONARD,
AND Q.M.

NO. 2025 CW 1309

VERSUS

DEFENDANT 1, DEFENDANT 2,
DEFENDANT 3, AND DEFENDANT 4

OCTOBER 15, 2026

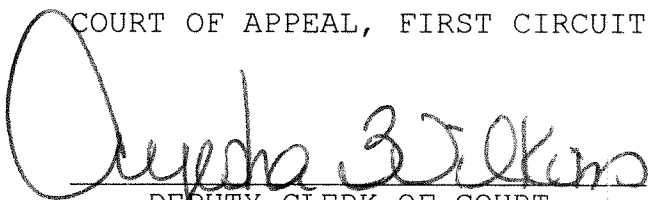

In Re: Christian Acres Youth Center, Inc., applying for supervisory writs, 19th Judicial District Court, Parish of East Baton Rouge, No. 760120.

BEFORE: THERIOT, PENZATO, AND BALFOUR, JJ.

WRIT GRANTED IN PART AND DENIED IN PART. The portion of the district court's November 3, 2025 judgment which denied the exception of lack of subject matter jurisdiction filed by defendant, Christian Acres Youth Center, Inc., is reversed, in part, as to plaintiffs, Jacobi Landry, Marcos Brown and Brad Leonard. Plaintiffs did not dispute they did not exhaust their administrative remedies, which were in effect at the time of the alleged abuse, and plaintiffs failed to prove that such remedies were irreparably inadequate so as to excuse the failure to exhaust. See La. R.S. 15:1172; Frances v. Defendant 1, 2025-1328 (La. App. 1st Cir. 7/15/26), -- So.3d --, 2026 WL 2044042. Accordingly, the exception of lack of subject matter jurisdiction is granted as to the claims of plaintiffs, Jacobi Landry, Marcos Brown and Brad Leonard, and their claims against, defendant, Christian Acres Youth Center, Inc., are dismissed without prejudice. The writ is denied as to the claims of plaintiffs, Gwaine Luno, Jonathan Penley and Q.M., and in all other respects.
