In Re: Daniel James DeBlanc, Independent Administrator of the Succession of David Paul DeBlanc, Jr., applying for supervisory writs, 22nd Judicial District Court, Parish of St. Tammany, No. 202512778.

BEFORE: PENZATO, LANIER, AND FIELDS, JJ.

STAY GRANTED; WRIT GRANTED. This matter is currently on appeal from the grant of an exception of no right of action dismissing all claims of relator asserted in his petition of intervention herein. La. Code Civ. P. art. 2088 provides that the jurisdiction of the trial court over all matters in the case reviewable under the appeal is divested, and that of the appellate court attaches, on the granting of the order of appeal, and thereafter, the trial court has jurisdiction in the case only over those matters not reviewable under the appeal, subject to certain exceptions inapplicable herein. Matters "not reviewable under the appeal," have generally been interpreted to give the trial court continuing jurisdiction over all issues that are unaffected by the appeal. Succession of Smith v. Portie, 2019-409 (La. App. 3d Cir. 12/30/19), 288 So.3d 187, 191; Bernhard MCC, LLC v. Zeringue, 2018-30 (La. App. 5th Cir. 5/30/18), 250 So.3d 342. We find that matters reviewable under the appeal which dismissed relator's claim to ownership of the account at issue encompass issues common to plaintiff's claims to ownership of the same account. Accordingly, the district court is divested of jurisdiction of all claims related to ownership of the account during the pendency of the appeal. Therefore, the district court proceedings are stayed pending the appeal from the dismissal of the claims asserted in the petition for intervention filed by relator.
